SENATOR GOLL: This will be a voice vote. All in favor say aye. Opposed nay. The bill is readvanced. Senator Hoagland has requested that LB 525 be passed over for today. Guests of Senator Haberman are in the north balcony. There are 18 4-H Awareness Teams from all over the State of Nebraska in the north balcony, accompanied by their leader. They are visiting the Unicameral today representing the 4-H Youth Development Program of the University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension Service. It is a special, very special delegation of Nebraska teenagers. Would you please stand and be recognized. Thank you for visiting the halls of government. Would you like to read some materials into the record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, a new resolution. LR 341 by Senator Scofield and Senator Haberman. Mr. President, Senator Rod Johnson would like to withdraw LB 818, that will be laid over. Senator Schmit has amendments to 779 to be printed. (See pages 718-19 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, your Committee on Education, whose Chairman is Senator Vickers, reports LB 414 indefinitely postponed, 906, 939-941, 943, and 1039, all of those indefinitely postponed, all signed by Senator Vickers as Chair.

Mr. President, LR 340 was a resolution that was introduced by Senator Marsh and Senator Wesely. It is found on page 683 of the Journal. (Read.)

SENATOR GOLL: Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: Good morning, Mr. President and members of the Legislature. It is with a real thrill that I stand to talk a little bit about resolution 340 this morning. This is the 19th year the University of Nebraska has hosted Model United Nations, bringing personnel from the United Nations and other experts from around the world to help educate the youth and the adults in the State of Nebraska. I also would like to tell you that our own Senator Don Wesely has been very closely associated with the University of Nebraska in a leadership position with Model United Nations, and has given of his time and effort to make this a growing concern in our state. High school youth, as well as college age youth, from all of the various institutions, public and private, in
